Funding resources

Because acquiring funding and resources is often helpful in establishing and continuing a place-based education emphasis in your school, we encourage you to use your Discovering PLACE grant-writing experience as a practice experience for acquiring funding from other organizations. Information on grant amounts, criteria and deadlines can be found at the Web sites of the organizations listed here.

Please evaluate each funding source carefully. While this list is a helpful starting point, Discovering PLACE implies no endorsement of, or connection with these organizations, except as noted.
