

Vehicle City Voices: An Oral History and Linguistic Survey of Flint, MI

Be part of an important oral history and English dialect study of Flint, MI

- Are you 18 years old or older?
- Were you born in or have you lived in Flint or the surrounding areas for the majority of your life
- Would you be interested in contributing your story to an oral history website and English dialect study in Flint?

If you answered YES to these questions, you may be eligible to participate in a English dialect study and oral history survey.

The Vehicle City Voices project will serve as a digital resource for researchers and students on the UM-Flint campus and beyond who are interested variations in grammar, pronunciations, word use, and speaking styles of English speakers in Flint, MI. In addition, the project will create an oral history website for members of the Flint community.

Participants will receive a copy of the audio recording of their interview and their interviews will be featured on an oral history website.

This study is being conducted at The University of Michigan-Flint.

Please call Erica Britt at (810) 762-3483 or send an email to erbritt@umflint.edu for more information